

Second Friday Art Hop In Downtown Hudson

Second Friday Art Hops are a collaborative effort designed to promote the arts in Hudson and support the work of studio artists and galleries.

Artist studios and galleries in Hudson are teaming up to kick off a regular monthly event for art lovers in the area with Second Friday Art Hops. Visitors can tour seven venues -- all working studios or art galleries in the downtown Hudson area.

Participating studios and galleries include:

Hudson Fine Art & Framing, We exhibit works by nationally known artists in oil, watercolors, ceramic, glass, sculpture, and much more. Let our team of talented designers turn your artwork into a framed masterpiece!

Chentini Gallery, Our aim is to provide a unique art experience for the community, by facilitating opportunities and exposure for local, regional and emerging artists.

Bellabor Art Jewelry, Using the ancient craft of Maille, Dana Giel-Ray creates one of a kind contemporary jewelry. Her pieces have been sold internationally. She is always creating, so come and see all the new pieces.

Life Needs Art-Karen Koch creates abstract paintings and collages that are inspired by nature and nostalgia. An award-winning artist, her work is collected nationally and internationally. Something colorful and energetic is always on her easel. Stop by and check out what's new!

Creative Fingers, Owner/Artist Stacie Pinover offers children of all ages the unique experience of learning about art through a variety of mediums in a downtown Hudson studio setting.

Mary Catherine Haneline Studio, She paints local landmarks and people. She also offers group instruction for adults and children.

Shannon Casey Studio, Imaginative realism best describes Shannon Casey's artwork. After years in advertising, she now tells her stories in oil and pastel. Her narrative paintings feature whimsical moons, starry nights and silvery beach scenes. Her quick-sketch charcoal portraits capture the moment for sitters of all ages.

Lori Hess Studio, Lori Hess is an award-winning artist who has participated in fine art shows and taught painting workshops on creativity and color theory as well as privately. Her current focus is on private commissions in children's portraiture. She is a Signature Member of the Ohio Watercolor Society.

Open Door Coffee, We source only fair trade coffee, which is fresh roasted and served to you. Our baked goods are locally sourced and delicious.
